DESCRIPTION

The French have funny ways of expressing themselves. With phrases like « En voiture, Simone » (in the car, Simone), « s'éclater » (to smash oneself) or « il est à l'ouest » (he's in the West), they don't always abide by grammar and vocabulary rules. If you enjoy getting to know the locals when you travel and want a fun, useful way to learn everyday French, you have come to the right place! Jump in, Allez-y ! Take a course or two and éclatez-vous !
